

ELENA CRAMER

DIRECTOR

ABOUT ME

I am a director based out of NYC. I am passionate about developing new work as well as bringing fresh perspective to classic pieces. I bring a feminist and queer lens to most of my work while prioritizing creating a world that feels incredibly human and grounded. My background in acting and costuming allows me to communicate well with people on all parts of my team and to understand their needs.

EDUCATION

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN - STEVENS POINT

2016 - 2020

BFA IN ACTING, BA IN SPANISH

While in undergrad I had the opportunity to take a directing course and assistant direct the professor of that class.
